COVELLI FAMILY LIMITED PARTNERSHIP

Covelli Family Limited Partnership, a franchisee of Panera Bread, is committed to giving back to the community. In 1992 the Operation Dough-Nation program was founded and includes Panera Cares® Community Breadbox™ cash collection boxes, a Day-End Dough-Nation™ program and participation in community events through donations, promotions and sponsorships.

Panera Bread is proud to have the Children's Cancer Center, Moffitt Cancer Center, St. Joseph's Children's Hospital Foundation, LifeLink Legacy Fund, Kids Charity of Tampa Bay, Feeding America Tampa Bay and UF Health Cancer Center as community partners. Additionally, in the past year Covelli Family Limited Partnership donated over $3.2 million in food and sponsorships to local food banks, shelters, and non-profit agencies in the Tampa Bay area.

In 2012 the Panera Bread Knead for Knowledge Scholarship Program was launched to help children who have battled childhood cancer pursue the dream of a college education. To date, close to $200,000 in scholarships have been awarded to recipients serviced by the Children's Cancer Center. Additionally, the Panera Bread S.A.I.L. Program (Students Achieving through Interactive Learning) was developed to offer weekly academic tutoring, exposure to the arts, and mentoring opportunities.
